

Season Cost

The program fee for the season is $700.00. This fee is collected after team selections are finalized and must be paid before uniforms are ordered, if your team decides to have names on the back. If not, program will provide team uniforms.

What Your Fee Covers

Your season fee supports all essential parts of the Campbell Junior Basketball experience, including:

- League Participation Costs CCJBC league entry fees, and gym usage for games
- Practice Facilities Scheduled gym time for team practices throughout the season
- Equipment & Supplies Basketballs, training equipment, first-aid supplies, and coaching materials
- Program Operations Website maintenance, communication tools, printing, awards, and administrative expenses

When Fees Are Due

Fees are due only after a player is selected for a team. Coaches and the Program Director will provide payment instructions, deadlines.

Financial Transparency

Campbell Junior Basketball is committed to providing a high-quality, well-organized experience for every family. All fees collected go directly toward running the program and supporting our players.
